

We are offering this kit to you as an option to help support you through this difficult, extremely personal experience. This kit has been thoughtfully put together and the items included may help provide care for you and your baby during this time. Please feel free to use all, some, or none of the items in this kit—whatever feels right for you.

What's Included in Your Kit:

- White Collection Container for the Toilet: A gentle, simple way to collect your baby's remains during this difficult time.
- Blue top container for Holding Your Baby: A container to respectfully hold your baby once they have passed.
- Two Bags for the Container: A plastic bag for protection and a cloth bag for a more personal, respectful transport of your baby if needed.
- Pads of Different Sizes: For your comfort and care during this process.
- Resource Card: This card contains some initial resources to support you. It includes a QR code that links to a more comprehensive list of services and support.

If you have questions or need more support, please feel free to reach out to our Perinatal Bereavement Staff:

- Terri Temple: 406-459-4981
- Stephanie Bauch: 406-461-2396

Options for Care of Your Baby's Remains:

(These options are available unless otherwise discussed or instructed by your healthcare provider.)

We want you to know you have choices when it comes to honoring your baby.

- At-Home Care: You may choose to take time with your baby in a way that feels right for you.
- Funeral Home Services: If you would like to have your baby cremated, Anderson Stevenson Wilke Funeral Home offers cremation at no cost to you. Contact your Perinatal Bereavement Staff to arrange this. Or you may contact the Funeral Home directly at \(406\) 442-8520.

Please know that you are not alone, and there are resources to support you through this journey with compassion and care.
